Music CDs

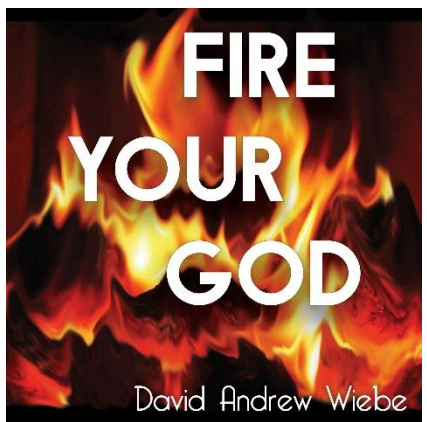

Shipwrecked... My Sentiments

The year is 2005. My band just broke up, and I'm devastated. At least I can keep making music on my own. But then my cousin Mitch takes his life. Ouch. I grasp at words. "Shipwrecked." It seemed fitting. The songs speak of the struggle for identity and independence, the human condition and parting words for friends and fond memories.

☐ Yes, I would like to order Shipwrecked... My Sentiments for $22 CAD!

Listen online.

Fire Your God

In 2010, I recorded a myriad of demos – blueprints, sketches, one-offs, and even podcast themes. Fire Your God features everything from video-game inspired rock to whiteboy hip-hop. The tracks are far from perfect, but they are awesome.

☐ Yes, I would like to order Fire Your God for $22 CAD!

Listen online.

No Escape

The lead off title track "No Escape" is an aggressive funk rock tune exploring themes of escapism and identity crisis.

"Sleepless Blues" serves as a laid-back acoustic interlude, and segues into "Don't Wait Too Long," a song about the vacuum of depression. The cheery pop rock anthem, "Hope" finds the writer disillusioned with superficial and unverified faith. Finally, "Grace is Bittersweet" finds the narrator grappling with his humanity, bowing at the feet of the divine.

☐ Yes, I would like to order No Escape for $17 CAD!

Nowhere EVEN Near

DavidAndrewWiebe

Nowhere Even Near

Nowhere Even Near features six songs that are admittedly unfinished. Following in the tradition of Fire Your God, this collection features experimental rock and pop songs that vary in scope and subject matter. You're in for a wild roller coaster ride and you'll love it.

☐ Yes, I would like to order Nowhere Even Near for $17 CAD!

Makeshift Romance

David Andrew Wiebe

Makeshift Romance

The long-awaited musical return from David Andrew Wiebe, Makeshift Romance features songs that live on as fan favorites in DAW lore – “Makeshift Romance,” “Perfect Nuisance,” “Too Late,” and “Wonderfully Dysfunctional.” The closing track, a celebration of fresh starts and new beginnings, “Clean Slate” offers a lemony scent of freshness to boot.

☐ Yes, I would like to order Makeshift Romance for $17 CAD!
